Cupid's Activity Shows Results As Altar Parade Starts Here

"Spring brings wedding rings" seems to be the slogan adopted by young people of this community who have rushed to marriage license bureaus to file their intentions with the first rustle of Spring. The old idea that June is the month for weddings seems to have been discarded and each week has its share of church, chapel and home ceremonies. Weddings-of-the-week were:

St. Bartholomew church at Belmont Shore, Long Beach, furnished the setting for the wedding of Miss Sylvia Zamperini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zamperini of 2028 Gramercy avenue, to Harvey Bristow Flammer of Inglewood last Sunday.

Rev. Father Thomas Kennedy, formerly of this city, performed the ceremony in the presence of some 100 persons.

The bride, lovely in ensemble of arquoise blue with all white accessories and corsage of daffodils and hyacinths, was given in marriage by her father. Miss Rosalie Brisinger of Los Angeles acted as bridesmaid, gowned in ensemble of dusty pink with cranberry accessories and corsage of French roses.

Edward Rice of Los Angeles served as best man, while Flammer, Ushers were Hal Flammer, brother of the groom, and Pete Zamperini, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Zamperini home. The sumptuous wedding cake, which was cut by the bride, was made and decorated by her mother. The cake a three-tier affair, was 14 inches across the bottom and eight inches across the top. It boasted an all-white frosting and was topped with miniature bride and groom.

Many and lovely were the gifts presented to the happy couple. The groom's gift to his bride was a platinum watch with rim of diamonds. After a northern honeymoon on which they plan to attend the fair at San Francisco and spend several days at Yosemite National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Flammer will make their home in apartments at the California Court.

We'd Like to Meet Some June Brides

June . . . month of brides, graduation and vacations. We don't care (right now, anyway!) about the latter two June events but . . .

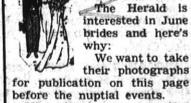

The Herald is interested in June brides and here's why:

We want to take their photographs for publication on this page before the nuptial events.

If you know any prospective June bride—and there must be many of them if Dan'l Cupid has been attending to his work!—will you let us know as soon as possible?

Then we can send our photographer to their homes by appointment and make studies suitable for engravings.

Of course there will be no charge of any kind for this service.
